ONE Archives at the USC Libraries

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of ONE National Gay & Lesbian Archives at the USC Libraries to collect, preserve, and make accessible LGBTQ historical materials while promoting new scholarship on and public awareness of queer histories.

What is the purpose of the collection development policy?

The purpose of the collection development policy is to promote new scholarship on and public awareness of queer histories.

What is the scope of the collection development policy?

The collections at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries are primarily national in scope, with special focus on LGBTQ histories in the Los Angeles region. The archives also include a number of international materials, such as books, periodicals, and posters.

How does the collection development policy support the organization's mission?

ONE archives is one of the largest and oldest organizations that are focused on LGBTQ.

USC ONE lends artwork and archival materials both for nationally and international exhibitions. They also provide research and collections on LGBTQ+ materials.

The Mattachine Society and Mr. Kemper along with others decided to combined to create ONE Archives to protect and improve the rights of the LGBTQ community.

Queer Archives, Queer Terrains

A program that is part of USC ONE and bridges together current events with events that have occurred in the past.

It raises public awareness of queer histories.
